

MARKETING OPPORTUNITIES & INFORMATION ON SYMPOSIUM

Ms Claire Farrington-Douglas, Mr Simon Grobler and Dr Nicholas Behn are pleased to announce that an academic and clinical symposium in Cognitive-Communication Disorders (CCD) will be held in London, UK on Thursday 20th and Friday 21st September 2018, with a welcome reception on Thursday evening. This is an academic and clinical symposium for researchers and clinicians working in the field of cognitive-communication disorders incorporating all rehabilitation disciplines including Speech and Language Therapy, Clinical Psychology and Neuropsychology. The primary focus of the symposium is on the assessment and management of cognitive-communication disorders for people with brain injury.

The 2018 program will involve a morning on each day by experts Prof MacDonald from Canada and Prof Douglas from Australia as well as a broad range of presentations through platform presentations, lightning talks and posters being presented in the afternoon. These presentations will consist of papers peer reviewed and submitted by established academics, new researchers and practising clinicians.

The Scientific Committee consists of Nicole Charles, Cathy Sparkes, Sylvia Taylor-Goh and Clare Keohane.

The Committee are offering a number of sponsorship opportunities for interested organisations or individuals. These are set out below. We are aiming to attract 150 delegates.
